

Oklahoma

Cultural Heritage Trust

Archives, Libraries & Museums

May Day Call to Action

May 1, 2013 • Oklahoma State Capitol

Join Your Constituents.

9:30 a.m. • Governor's Blue Room

Join archive, library and museum professionals from across Oklahoma in a presentation of Proclamation from Governor Fallin and official announcement of "Top Ten Most Endangered Artifacts" Nominees.

10 a.m. • Fourth Floor Rotunda

Be part of the selection process as public voting commences for "Top Ten Most Endangered Artifacts" representing a variety of treasures from across Oklahoma.

1:30 p.m. • State House Chambers

Experience a day of history as members of the Oklahoma House of Representatives present a Concurrent Legislative Resolution on behalf of the more than 800 archive, library and museum professionals from all 77 counties in Oklahoma.

About the Trust.

The Oklahoma Cultural Heritage Trust is an alliance between the Oklahoma Department of Libraries, Oklahoma Historical Records Advisory Board, Oklahoma Historical Society, Oklahoma Museums Association and other supporting partners. For more information, visit CulturalHeritageTrust.org or call 405-522-3515.