

Oklahoma
Cultural Heritage Trust
Archives, Libraries & Museums

One time Only!
Join us on April 28 from 1 to 5 p.m.
Free to the public, but you must register!
CulturalHeritageTrust.org

Preserving Family Treasures Road Show

Sunday, April 28 from 1 to 5 p.m.

Oklahoma History Center | 800 Nazih Zuhdi Drive in Oklahoma City.

Join Us to Save Your Treasures - Free!

Participants are encouraged to bring one item to be evaluated. Eight categories of items will be evaluated: paper such as letters, comic books, certificates and maps; photographs; recordings such as home movies, cassettes or VHS tapes; all types of artwork; ceramics and glass; metals; textiles such as quilts, flags and clothing; and organics such as leather, baskets and feathers. Sign up today to attend at CulturalHeritageTrust.org

Amazing Activities for the Day.

1 to 3 p.m.

Collections care professionals from around the country will be on-hand to evaluate and discuss items brought by participants. Staff from the Oklahoma History Center will also be available to answer questions about the possible historical significance of items.

1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

“Saving Nebraska Treasures” will be screened. The informative video offers insight into caring for treasured objects and heirloom pieces and is a sister project to our efforts.

3 to 5 p.m.

Collections care professionals will highlight several items brought by participants and evaluate specific methods for preservation and care. The audience also will have the opportunity to ask questions.

About the Trust.

The Oklahoma Cultural Heritage Trust is an alliance between the Oklahoma Department of Libraries, Oklahoma Historical Records Advisory Board, Oklahoma Historical Society, Oklahoma Museums Association and other supporting partners. For more information, visit CulturalHeritageTrust.org or call 405-522-3515.

Important: Furniture, taxidermy or weapons such as swords, guns or knives are not allowed. Appraisal services will not be provided.